Palacký University Press

Under the roof of the Palacký University Olomouc, the second oldest university in the Czechia (est. 1573), Palacký University Press has been uncovering the genius libri of specialist and popular science literature since 1991. It focuses on academic publications, promoting science and contributing to the fulfilment of the university's third role – public outreach. It publishes specialist monographs, medical publications, modern textbooks as well as popular-science book projects regarding the fields of history, art, or photography. It develops partnerships with cultural and social institutions and collaborates with authors from the Czechia and abroad.

TEMNÉ OBILÍ

DARK GRAIN

DUNKLES KORN

"An imaginative combination of graphic novel and historical study about the Massaker von Prerau."

Martin Šinkovský – Ticho762
Pavel Kreisinger
2025
ISBN 978-80-244-6522-7

An unconventional double (flip) book maps and presents the events of the so-called Massaker von Prerau, in which more than 260 innocent Carpathian Germans, mainly old people, women and children, were executed shortly after the Second World War, in June 1945.

This engaging combination of an imaginative graphic novel and a historical study has the potential to appeal to a wide group of readers, including teenagers. The book brings a powerful story, written by an acclaimed author duo, as well as newly discovered information from the archives that the public should know.

Kateřina Mesdag | Irena Mandić
2026
ISBN 978-80-244-6763-4
ISBN 978-80-244-6762-7

Museum Without Walls* is a series of books for children and adults that turns a visit to a gallery into an adventure – even in your own living room. Discover art, paintings, major galleries and museums, and the world around us together.

The series begins its journey at the Trade Fair Palace of the National Gallery Prague, with two titles aimed at two different age groups of children. My First Trade Fair Palace introduces the world of art to primary school children, whilst My Trade Fair Palace is aimed at secondary school pupils and those attending multi-year grammar schools. Both books present specific works of art in a way that encourages young and teenage readers to engage with art through play, storytelling, playful illustrations and creative activities.

NOT SO FAIR FAIRY TALES

SEHR SCHLECHTE MÄRCHEN

„A playful
motivational book for people who can't say NO.”

Marta Sýkorová

2026

ISBN 978-80-244-6777-1

A unique motivational book for people who are too nice and indecisive, who constantly put others first, suppress their own boundaries and feel that thinking of themselves is selfish.

In eight stories and one "fairy-tale-like" tale for all those who are too kind and indecisive, and for those who can't say no, you'll find plenty of advice and exercises on how to treat yourself better and turn your own fairy tale into a story with a joyful ending.
