Palacký University Press

Under the roof of the Palacký University Olomouc, the second oldest university in the Czech Republic (est. 1573), Palacký University Press has been publishing academic literature since the beginning of 1990s. It focuses on specialized monographs, medical publications, textbooks as well as book projects regarding the fields of history, art, and photography. It gradually develop collaboration with various culture institutions, such as museums, towns, galleries, etc., which leads to book series with unique content, form, and society-wide and international impact. Thanks to its publishing activities, it helps to further disseminate the results of academic research, popularising science, and fulfilling the "third role" of the university – public outreach.

Palacký University Press's output includes three main categories:

- academic publications (intended for the professional public),
- textbooks (for university students, incl. secondary school students preparing for university entrance exams), and
- prestigious publications (narratively and pictorially rich, from popular to expert publications).

Jakub Janega
First edition | 2022 | 316 pages
ISBN 978-80-244-6185-4
Sales price CZK 449 (EUR 19)

They say the current generation does not know much about the European Union. How and why was it established? How does it work? What does it decide about? What it can and cannot do? What do we gain and what do we lose? And how has it been affected by the turbulent events of recent years, such as Brexit? All this and much more is explained in the unique textbook Europe Together.

The book is clearly structured and has a visually varied form full of fact-boxes, infographics, illustrations and revision tests.

POPULATION OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC IN 1995–2019

"Find out how the Czech Republic is aging thanks to precise mapping and data work."

Jitka Rychtaříková et al.
First edition | 2023 | 100 pages
ISBN 978-80-244-6062-8
Sales price CZK 289 (EUR 12)

Is the Czech Republic getting older? How much? And how is the vital index or the index of economic dependence of the Czechs developing? A detailed look at the population of the Czech Republic between 1995 and 2019 reveals all of this. As we know in the Czech Republic, Olomouc geoinformaticians are masters of all that concerns maps and map visualizations, for which they have been awarded more than once.

Together with colleagues from the Faculty of Science of Charles University, they have recently prepared a detailed exploration of the transformation of Czech society in terms of age structure within their M·A·P·S edition.

LITURGICAL TEXTILES AND METHODS OF THEIR PRESENTATION

„Explore the methodology of presenting the treasures of liturgical textile art.“

Markéta Grill Janatová,
Jitka Jonová (eds.)
First edition | 2022 | 360 pages
ISBN 978-80-244-6058-1
Sales price CZK 399 (EUR 17)

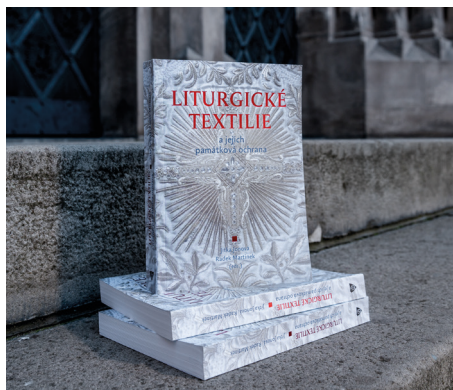

This unique publication designed for practice focuses on the specifics of the presentation of liturgical textiles. It offers historical contexts, specific procedures and tips for the presentation of liturgical textiles in various conditions and places the whole issue in a broader cultural context.

It is the first book and methodology in the Czech environment to deal in such detail with the historical contexts and methods of presenting liturgical textiles.

The book concludes „liturgical series“, which represents a long-standing project of experts from Palacký University Olomouc and the National Heritage Institute, mapping the beauty of liturgical art in textile form from all perspectives.

A remarkable series on liturgical textile art
